JOB-WORK OF ALL KINDS

Executed to order, neatly, and on reasonable terms.

It is intended to make the SHELBY SENTINEL a first-class Family Newspaper, Democratic in politics, devoted to General News, Literature, and Morality. To sustain our paper, we naturally expect the assistance and co-operation of the people of Shelby and adjoining counties. While the local interests of this section will not be neglected, we will aim to advance the general prosperity of the State.

The general interests and welfare of this section can in no better way be advanced than through the medium of a newspaper.

Devoting our attention to all topics of the day, we will freely and independently discuss them. A cordial support will be given to Democratic and Conservative principles, in opposition to the revolutionary measures of Radicalism.

Believing that this is the only course which will result in permanent prosperity to the country and that these views are such as the people of Kentucky generally and heartily endorse, we shall hold and defend them as much as life. Firm in the opinion that we can make our paper acceptable, we seek a liberal patronage.

Correspondence upon all subjects is respectfully invited. All communications must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication, unless desired, but as a guarantee of good faith and responsibility. Communications to insure favorable attention should be brief, to the point, and plainly written upon but one side of the paper.

Reprinted communications cannot be returned. Announcements of Marriages and Deaths published gratis. Obituary Notices, Tributes of Respect, etc., will be charged fifty cents for each ten lines;—the money to accompany the announcement.

Parishes ordering us to advertise for the money in other papers must advance the amount requisite to pay for such advertisement.

Advertisements under the "Special Notice" head will be charged 50 per cent. additional to the above rates. All transient advertisements, and all advertisements from a distance, cash.

Yearly advertisers have the privilege of altering their advertisements quarterly. More frequent changes must be contracted for, otherwise they will be charged 20 cents per square for each change. Collection will be made quarterly.

Original Poetry.

(For the Shelby Sentinel.)

PARTHENOPE.

BY A. T.

She moaned within her sea-girt cell and deep;

And tender moaned the tortured sea without.

The angry wind with strong arms, beat the waves;

That, frightened, rushed for refuge to the shore:

They foam with rage; they howl with fear and pain!

And thro' the din the whirled voice is heard!

Alas! and woe!—a voice of fire!

Of Tartarus, that haunts a sea of fire.

Alas! the moon, the murky clouds drift fast:

And on the sea-coast strikes a cold night.

Still moans the sire, in his sea-girt cell;

Her song that once could change the sea of waves;

And thrill the night with joy—and unceasing praise.

The very waves to dance with ecstasy—

So sweet, that she herself would faint with love—

Had failed to win the hero of her love.

From out her long, black, rippled hair she twists

The wreaths of coral, and of amber beads;

And from her rounded arms, and throat—she draws

Thousands of pearls, and flings them to the deep.

Out on the waves she throws her burning arms;

And sought to cool her fevered agony:

She pressed her burning temple to the sea—

And to her throbbing heart the sea thrilled back;

And then her passionate, wild voice she raised

Above the howl of waves, and shout of waves:

"Prepare, within thy depths, this night, for me

A peaceful couch, to rest me on, O sea!

I've wept my blood, I've sung my song in vain

To win my home-land here from the sea's reign.

I live of life—the loveless cheer—no more

I sleep in a jeweled cave I sleep no more—

O, woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe!

For, grief propelled, beneath I go!"

"I'll sleep serene, until, some midnight hour—

O, hero home-returned—by love's strong power—

I'll stir me from my death-sleep in the sea

And haunt thy dreams with songs heard by me.

And I will meet thee in the deep of sleep.

To draw thee to my cave—thine—thine—

O, woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe! woe!

For, grief propelled, beneath I go!"

FIRST AND LAST DINNER.

Twelve friends, much about the same age, and fixed, by their pursuits, their family connections and other local interests, as permanent inhabitants of the meropolis, agreed one day when they were drinking their wine at the Star and Garter,

at Richmond, to institute an annual dinner among themselves, under the following regulations: That they should dine alternately at each other's houses on the first and last day of the year; that the first bottle of wine uncorked at the first dinner

should be re-corked and put away, to be drank by him who should be the last of their number; that they should never admit a new member; that when one died

eleven were to meet, and so on; and that when only one remained, he should on those two days, dine by himself, and sit

the usual hours at his solitary table; but the first time he so dined alone, lest it should be the only one, he should then uncork the first bottle, and, in the first glass, drink to the memory of all who were gone.

There was something original and whimsical in the idea, and it was eagerly embraced. They were all in the prime of

Horse Bills.—Our friends of this and adjoining counties can be accommodated with horse bills at this office, on reasonable terms.

See the advertisement of Mr. Wm. Sharrard. He has a fine stock of goods on hand, and as a Watchmaker and Jeweler he can't be beat.

We understand that Mr. George Radford the attentive telegraph operator at Bagdad is a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace in his precinct. He will make a good Magistrate.

To All New Subscribers.—In consequence of a large increase in our subscription list our supply of premiums is exhausted, but having ordered a large lot, we will, as soon as received, furnish them to all entitled to them.

Farmers of Shelby County, see the advertisement of Mr. C. W. Burks. All work done at his shop is warranted. All who want work done as it should be done, are informed that C. W. Burks is the man to do it.

OUR LOUISVILLE AGENT.—W. Lewis Wharton, formerly of the firm of Wharton, Allen & Davis, is authorized to act as our agent in Louisville, and will receive and receipt for advertisements and subscriptions. Mr. A. Fulkerson is no longer an agent for the Sentinel.

We had the pleasure of meeting in our office this week Clifton Wharton Esq., of Louisville, who is in our country on business connected with the Southern Life Insurance Company of Louisville. We commend Mr. W. and the company he represents to our people.

CHOLERA. A lady in New Haven, speaking of One's Cough Balsam, says she lost two darling children with Croup, and was in despair when the third and last was attacked, but his life was spared through One's Cough Balsam. She advises all mothers to keep it on hand in case of emergency.

NOTHING TO SELL.—A few days since a green customer coming into Dr. G. J. Stivers Dental office, having just left the Banking House of J. A. Edwards & Co., remarked, "I don't see how thin folks make a living: there's two men behind the counter, and they haven't got a thing to sell."

Great Clearance Sale of Dry Goods, for the month of March at Jones and Smiths Store.

Those who have favored us with a call for the last few days, know that we have given some good bargains. We now offer for the next 30 days, still greater bargains in all kinds of Dry Goods, Hats, Caps, Clothing, Shoes, Boots, &c. We refuse no money for them in reason.

SUPERIOR FLOUR.—Having received from the Star Mills of E. A. Zaring & Son, near Shelbyville, twenty-five pounds of flour, we are prepared to state it is a No. 1 article, and just such flour as is made at the Star Mills every day. We return our thanks for the very acceptable present, and take pleasure in recommending the Star Mills to the patronage of our citizens, and to all who desire the best article of flour. Flour will be delivered in town on short notice.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.—After this issue, all notices of advertisements, further than a mere enumeration of them, will be charged for, at the rate of twenty cents per line. Most newspapers have adopted the rule of charging for such notices, and in consequence of our limited space, we are compelled to give our adherence to the custom. Advertisers will please remember this, and will not expect notices that are not ordered and paid for.

Peterson's Magazine for April, is out and on our table. It strikes us as rather early for the April number, but, as Peterson circulates over the entire country, we presume it is compelled to issue at an early date, that it may reach its distant subscribers before the fashions change. At any rate, Peterson is one of the most enterprising monthlies, and the ladies all know it. The present number is superb.

The Stock Sales on last Monday, (Court day) were much smaller than usual. The following sales were made:

11 two year old Mules $120 each. 3 three year old Mules, Small, $85. 9 Scrub Cows, $40 to $65. One Stallion, by Green Mountain, $575. Horses, no good ones offered. Sales ranged from $40 to $190.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT.—The cases on the criminal docket were all disposed of last week.

The following persons were committed among others:

George Clark F. M. C., Horse Stealing, four years; James Kenney, Larceny, one year; Frank Williams, Hog Stealing, two years. The case of Capt. Ed Terrill charged with murder, was continued until the special April term.

HERMAN D. McILHenny,
Speaker of the House of Representatives, pro tem.
RICHARD T. JACOB,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved Feb. 27, 1867.
THOS. E. BRAMLETTE,
Governor of Kentucky.

CAPT. HEADY.—We received a communication from this gentleman some time since, requesting us to discontinue the announcement that he was a candidate for Congress. We inferred that on sober reflection he had calculated to withdraw from the race. Noticing that he made a speech at Lawrenceburg in reply to Mr. Knott we presume he is again on the track.

The Capt. says that Mr. Knott is not the nominee of a regular Democratic convention.

The Capt. hath said it and the Capt. knows.

The Capt. says Mr. Knott would have no influence in Congress. That Mr. K. having been an original secessionist would not be listened to, while he could prevail on Congress to do many things.

The Capt. hath said it and the Capt. knows.

The Capt. fully believes that he will be elected. We are of a different opinion, but this county is not the Congressional district.

The Capt. hath said it and the Capt. knows.—Elizabethhen Banner.

NEW FEATURE.—The Paris Kentuckian has introduced a baby department—that is it is publishing the births that occur in that county. We hardly expected such a thing from a bachelor editor. It is all right nevertheless. When persons make their exit from this "vale of tears" we chronicle the fact, and why not, with equal propriety, note their advent. According to Tupper, "a babe in the house is a well-spring of pleasure," so when "The gates of Heaven are left ajar," and a little cherub

"With folded hands and dreamy eyes, Wanders forth from Paradise," let its coming be herald. Let it be proclaimed from the house tops and the printing press. Let the gong be sounded, and the boot-jack be beat. Let the world rejoice, along with the delighted "parents" over "fadder's" hope and "mudder's" joy.—Georgetown Times

The idea is a good one; we will publish with pleasure all such items. Bring them along;—we mean the items for publication.

SUSPICION.—It is the worst policy in the world ever to bear an appearance of doubt toward another until he has given you good cause. Your suspicion may make an enemy, but it can never gain a friend, and a man who is distrusted, finding he has nothing to gain by honesty, or to lose by villainy, very often becomes a knave through having been suspected of being so.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false laces, your wigs, your wigs of comfort, and not worth a fig; Come, angel, come, youthful, come, nighly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the head, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the smoothest face, from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A single ignorant practitioner has asserted that he has cured baldness in one week, or hastened the growth of hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses from their own experience can bear witness. Dr. Knott will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It is certainly difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations of this kind are made up of hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such you would say, try the Repurator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given.
